

colpe back to your career

colpe back to care

colpe back to nursing

'Come Back to Nursing' Event

Saturday 18 October 2014, 10.00 – 16.00
Seacole Building, Birmingham City University, Westbourne Road, Edgbaston
Birmingham, B15 3TN

Are you a Qualified Nurse who wants to get back into practice? An overseas nurse but not currently on the NMC register? Or an NMC registered nurse but currently not in a clinical role?

Have you thought about coming back into Nursing? Then come along to our event to find out how we can help make this happen.

You will be able to visit stalls and get advice to help you get back into your nursing career from;

Birmingham Children's Hospital, Birmingham Community Healthcare, Birmingham & Solihull Mental Health Foundation Trust, Birmingham Women's Hospital, Heart of England, Royal Orthopaedic Hospital, Sandwell & West Birmingham Hospital and Queen Elizabeth Hospital Birmingham

- Find out what it's like to be at the heart of the country and what it is to live and work in the second largest city, Birmingham
- Learn more about the areas that you could specialise in, such as renal care, critical care, neonates, theatres, general practice and community healthcare
- Meet key staff from the Trusts across Birmingham so that we can work with you in getting back into clinical nursing

The following will also be attending:

- NMC - find out the current information and processes on re-registration
- Aston University- IELTS – test your English language skills
- Birmingham City University– the courses available to support your development

To book your place, click on the following link: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/come-back-to-nursing-event-tickets-13304196209> Or Text: 'job' to 81156

(Only nurses need to book tickets, family members and relatives attending do not need to book tickets for this event)

Parking: We will provide free car parking on site at Birmingham City University. As you come down Westbourne Road the car park will be located on your right before the main entrance. If you come to the main reception desk and you will be shown to the right section of the building.

Directions