Type of Interest	Description
Financial Interests	This is where an individual may get direct financial benefits from the consequences of a decision they are involved in making for examples:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A director, including a non-executive director, or senior employee in a private company or public limited company or other organisation which is doing, or which is likely, or possibly seeking to do, business with the Trust. This includes involvement with a potential provider of a new care model;</li> <li>• A shareholder (or similar ownership interests), a partner or owner of a private or not-for-profit company, business, partnership or consultancy which is doing, or which is likely, or possibly seeking to do, business with the Trust;</li> <li>• A management consultant for a provider; or</li> <li>• A provider of clinical private practice.</li> </ul> This could also include an individual being: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In employment outside of the Trust;</li> <li>• In receipt of secondary income;</li> <li>• In receipt of a grant from a provider;</li> <li>• In receipt of any payments (for example honoraria, one-off payments, day allowances or travel or subsistence) from a provider;</li> <li>• In receipt of research funding, including grants that may be received by the individual or any organisation in which they have an interest or role; and</li> <li>• Having a pension that is funded by a provider (where the value of this might be affected by the success or failure of the provider).</li> </ul>
Non-Financial Professional Interests	This is where an individual may obtain a non-financial professional benefit from the consequences of a decision, they are involved in making such as increasing their professional reputation or status or promoting their professional career. This may, for example, include situations where the individual is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An advocate for a particular group of patients;</li> <li>• An active member of a particular specialist professional body (although routine GP membership of the Royal College of General Practitioners (RCGP), British Medical Association (BMA) or a medical defence organisation would not usually by itself amount to an interest which needed to be declared);</li> <li>• An advisor for the Care Quality Commission (CQC) or the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE);</li> <li>• Engaged in a research role;</li> <li>• The development and holding of patents and other intellectual property rights which allow staff to protect something that they create, preventing unauthorised use of products or the copying of protected ideas;</li> </ul>
Non-Financial Personal Interests	This is where an individual may benefit personally in ways which are not directly linked to their professional career and do not give rise to a direct financial benefit. This could include, for example, where the individual is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A voluntary sector champion for a provider;</li> <li>• A volunteer for a provider;</li> <li>• A member of a voluntary sector board or has any other position of authority in or connection with a voluntary sector organisation;</li> <li>• Suffering from a particular condition requiring individually funded treatment;</li> <li>• A member of a lobby or pressure group with an interest in health and care.</li> </ul>
Indirect Interests	This is where an individual has a close association with an individual who has a financial interest, a non-financial professional interest or a non-financial personal interest in a decision they are involved in making, for example, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Spouse / partner;</li> <li>• Close family member or relative e.g., parent, grandparent, child, grandchild or sibling;</li> <li>• Close friend or associate; or business partner.</li> </ul>
Loyalty Interests	Organisational (loyalty) interests..... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Carefully consider whether an individual's role in another organisation could result in actual or perceived conflicts of interest – could it influence the decisions they make, such as decisions on the spending of taxpayers' money? - and whether or not that outweighs the value of the knowledge they bring to the process.</li> </ul>

The NHS guidance defines a 'conflict of interest' as:

“A set of circumstances by which a reasonable person would consider that an individual's ability to apply judgement or act, in the context of delivering, commissioning, or assuring taxpayer funded health and care services is, or could be, impaired or influenced by another interest they hold.”
